Eco-Diva Day: is a one-day retreat to celebrate the beauty of women and our relationship to nature.

In today's fast pace of life, women have even more demands on their time and resources. Balancing family, work, household life, our inner spirit and creativity can be overwhelming in our culture today.

Come spend a day to wash your spirit clean, nourish your creativity, and rediscover the vast inner space that makes women unique. Tap into your power as a feminine spirit and let nature show you the beautiful Diva that you already are.

Bring your humour, sense of play, creativity and introspection along. No other experience needed.
